Braves of Tanpah Tribe Go to Boost Norris For Great Junior Sagamore

Fire Was Kindled at Indianapolis
Today — Locals Use
Special Car

About forty braves of Tanpah Tribe Red Men of this city, went to Indianapolis at 7 o'clock this morning on a special car to boost Oliver C. Norris, Past Sachem of Tanpah Tribe and Past District Deputy Great Sachem, for Great Junior Sagamore.

An advance guard of Mr. Norris' colleagues went to Indianapolis yesterday to work in his behalf. As there are a number of other candidates, Mr. Norris will have a tight race. This district is said to be for Mr. Norris in its entirety.

Other candidates for Great Junior Sagamore are George I. Kiser, Terre Haute; S. D. Harlan, Union City; V. W. Livengood, Waynetown, and Charles Robertson, Indianapolis. The contest will be an interesting one as there will be 1000 delegates to vote. Thomas G. Harrison, Great Chief of Records, will have opposition in the person of Fred Gill, of Indianapolis, and Ben Nagle, Noblesville.

Dr. C. A. Robinson, of Greenfield, the present Junior Sagamore will be advanced to Great Senior Sagamore at this meeting. Mr. Norris is known as "The Chief that is Always Happy," and it is said that he has a good chance of being elected.

The meeting is known as the thirty-eighth Great Sun Fire of the Great Council of Indiana, Improved Order of Red Men, and it was kindled in the German House at 9 o'clock this morning. The hunt will be followed for two suns and then the fire will be extinguished.

There are four representatives to the Great Council of the United States to be elected. Dr. John S. Coffman, retiring great prophet, will be named as one representative, according to a custom of the order, and the other three positions are contested for by Wilson Rouse, of Goshen; W. B. King, Lafayette; Thomas J. Gray, Noblesville; John A. McGaw, Indianapolis; Martin G. Mock, Muncie, and Frederick D. White, Connersville, circulation manager of the Rushville Republican.

The fight for Great Junior Sagamore will be watched with interest by Rushville people who sincerely hope that Mr. Norris will win.

KILLS AGED MAN WITH HIS AUTO

Lewis Henry, Son of Charles L.
Henry, Has Bad Accident at Indianapolis

Lewis Henry, a son of Charles L. Henry, president and general manager of the I. & C. traction company and well known here, met with a very unfortunate accident in Indianapolis yesterday. While driving his automobile on Illinois street near Michigan street about 6 p. m., he ran down Edward Branham, 81 years of age, and at one time, a well known Indianapolis business man. The aged man died in the Indianapolis city hospital two hours later.

Mrs. Charles L. Henry and Mr. Lewis Henry's bride were in the automobile at the time. According to Henry they were running at a moderate rate of speed when they saw Branham a short distance ahead of them. At the curbstone was a laundry wagon. Henry says he tried to steer his car between Branham and the wagon. Branham, he said, first stood still, then started across the street, only to turn back. The automobile struck the man and he suffered a fractured skull. Mr. Henry stopped his car immediately and ran into a drug store to call an ambulance.

While waiting for the ambulance, Mr. Henry and his bride and mother remained at the place until he was removed to the hospital. At the hospital he regained consciousness for an instant and told his name.

WERE SILENT WITH FEAR

Throng in City Streets Watch
Insane Woman's Awful Peril

Strategy Used by Police in Rescuing the Unfortunate Woman From Death

Indianapolis, Oct. 16.—While mentally deranged, Mrs. A. T. Newsom of 48 West North street, climbed to the roof of her home yesterday and walked about the eaves while a shuddering crowd in the street watched the police rescue her. Mrs. Newsom has been suffering with nervous prostration for some time and her reason began to fail. She imagined that enemies were trying to kill her and that her neighbors were watching for a chance to poison her. The Newsom home is the large two-story house at the northeast corner of Illinois and North street. Mr. Newsom, who remained at home to care for the woman, heard her go up the stairs into the attic, and a moment later he heard her footsteps on the roof. The woman had climbed a sort ladder in the attic and opened a trap in the roof. Newsom started after the woman, but when she saw his head come up through the trap she called to him that she would jump if he followed.

Thoroughly frightened for fear his wife would carry out her threat, Newsom ran down to his telephone and notified the police. In the meantime Mrs. Newsom walked down the sloping roof to the eaves and stood looking down into the street. Pedestrians stopped until there was a crowd in both North and Illinois streets.

Bicyclen Mullen and Hall answered Newsom's call for assistance. They hurried into the house and asked a few questions of the husband.

"What's her name?" Mullen asked. The woman's name is Ella, and this knowledge helped the police. Mullen went up the ladder and looked out through the hole.

"Hello, Ella, what are you doing up here?" was his pleasant greeting.

"I'm awfully glad to see you," replied the woman. "They were just about to kill me by making me inhale poisoned gas."

Mullen held out his hand in a friendly manner and the woman confidently placed her hand in his. The strong fingers of the bicyclen closed over the hand and the woman was a prisoner. Hall was on the ladder below and there was trouble in getting the woman down. Mullen was afraid to release the woman and he could not get her through the trap. Still holding her hand he got out on the roof, and then they managed to descend together. The patrol wagon was called and Mrs. Newsom was sent to the police station for safe keeping.

JUDGMENT IN ONE EQUITABLE CASE

Other Not Yet Argued—Result of Trials at New Castle

The four cases on notes and mortgages, in which Alvan Moor, receiver for the Equitable Building & Loan Association, is plaintiff, and Charles Nesbit, Joel Kirkwood and Corwin Stites are the defendants, were tried Monday at New Castle. Judgment was rendered against Joe Kirkwood for $481 together with attorneys fees and the costs of the suit. The other three cases were unfinished and will be argued Thursday.

Among the witnesses examined were A. B. Irvin, Alvan Moor, Elwood Kirkwood, Joel Kirkwood, Gates Sexton, Charles Nesbit and Corwin Stites. Other Rushville people present were Attorneys John H. Kiplinger, John D. Megee and John A. Tittsworth.

New Castle Courier: Bert Vance's many New Castle friends will be pained to learn that his condition of health is such that he will be forced to spend the winter in the South. With his brother Chase, he will leave some time next week for the southern part of Florida, where they will camp out and live in the open as much as possible. Bert has been in failing health for some time and is threatened with tuberculosis, and it is hoped that a time spent in the foregoing way be beneficial. His friends trust that the hope will be realized.

Dr. Logan, of New Salem, who has been ill for a long time with typhoid fever, is again able to care for his patients.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDDED TODAY

Mr. Omer Collier and Miss Lena Kelley Married at St. Mary's Church

At seven o'clock this morning at St. Mary's Catholic church occurred the marriage of Miss Lena, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelley, Sr., and Mr. Omer Collier, son of Mrs. Mary Collier, of Shelbyville. The impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. Walter J. Cronin, and was followed by a nuptial high mass.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Sister Mary Louise, organist of the church, the bridal couple entered, preceded by Master John Kelley, as ring bearer, and the attendants, Miss Ida Cooning and Mr. William Carroll. During the ceremony Miss Notie Moran sweetly sang "Call Me Thine."

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white Paris muslin, and wore a tulle veil. She carried a white prayerbook. The bridesmaid was prettily dressed in figured silk mull and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. She wore a white picture hat. Little John Kelley was dressed in white and carried a basket of beautiful flowers in which was imbedded the ring. The groom and best man wore the conventional black.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents on South Pearl street, to which the immediate relatives were invited. The couple were the recipients of many beautiful presents.

The bride is one of Rushville's most popular young ladies and a favorite in society. The groom is a prominent young man of Shelbyville and formerly lived in this city.

The bridal couple left this afternoon for a short wedding trip, after which they will go to Shelbyville, where they will make their home. Mr. Collier and his bride have a host of friends in this city who extend to them their best wishes and congratulations.

IS FIRM IN HIS VIEWS

Shaw Contends Democrats are Incapable of Handling Government Reins

Cites Shortcomings of Grover Cleveland's Administration as Proof

Pittsburg, Oct. 16.—Secretary of the Treasury Leslie M. Shaw was the principal speaker at a Republican mass meeting here last night. Mr. Shaw was received with much enthusiasm when he was presented and, true to his assertion, did not touch on state politics in his remarks. He gave considerable attention to the trust question. He recited the history of the trust evil, saying: "The opposition is loud in its claim that the people have no relief from the domination of corporate capital except through the Democratic party. Fortunately each of the great parties has a record on the subject."

The speaker devoted much time to a criticism of the Democratic party during the Cleveland administration, and of Mr. Cleveland in failing to recommend remedial legislation against the trust evil. Of William J. Bryan, while discussing the trusts, Mr. Shaw said:

"It would require volumes to contain his utterances on the subject. The casual reader, however, would have little difficulty in determining from these utterances the political party to which the author belongs. In the main he is indefinite and in the aggregate extravagant. Plainly does he tell the people that their only hope is in the party to which he belongs, and as plainly does he tell his party that its only hope is in him. He freely criticizes the Republican party for curbing, restraining and controlling, and declares it would be his policy to annihilate and forever destroy."

In concluding Mr. Shaw said: "Not on the statute books is there an enactment, nor in the old files of either house of congress is there a bill of Democratic origin; not in the platforms of the Democratic party is there a formulated, feasible plan; not in an inaugural address or message of a Democratic president, nor in the letter of acceptance or subsequent speech of a Democratic candidate actual or prospective, is there a sentence indicating a settled party policy or a settled plan of procedure for the control or for the annihilation of combinations commonly called trusts."

MUCH BETTER INTELLIGENCE

Must be Shown by the Teachers of the Future

Says Supt. Cotton in His Latest Bulletin—Pupils Must be Taught to Earn a Living

Intelligent work in the future must take the place of wit and an abundance of raw material of the past in this country, according to Fasset A. Cotton, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. In a bulletin, just issued to the teachers of the State, Mr. Cotton takes up the question of "Twentieth Century Schools and Teachers," showing that the problem of living and of getting anywhere will be a more difficult problem in the years to come than in the past.

The schools as they are today are not ready to meet this problem, according to Mr. Cotton. "The term is short, the pay is poor and more often than not the school officials and the people themselves have very meagre notions of education and what it should be for the children. The people want it practical, but they do not know what is most practical. Teachers themselves often do not know what it means to teach school. They have not studied the real problems of education. They scarcely know their subjects, the mere tools of education, from the fact side and the problem of skillful presentation, and the larger one of making men and women they have not considered. Indeed in many instances they have never chosen to teach school; for them teaching is a makeshift till they find themselves. And so it is possible for them to go on year after year. In all those the fault does not lie in the teacher, but it is nevertheless most certainly a grievous misfortune to the children."

Mr. Cotton then takes up the question of the coming teacher, who will have to teach boys and girls "to earn a living on closer margin than their ancestors did." "The day of blind teaching of facts is gone," continues Mr. Cotton. "The teacher of the future must be going somewhere, and he must know where he is going and the best way to get there. In rural communities, where the masses live, the soil must be a large factor in school work. Longer terms for teachers, better salaries and better preparations must come together."

The bulletin then takes up these three points—longer terms, better salaries and better preparation. First a seven and then an eight months' minimum term of school is demanded. "With more practice and better work, eight months' school would not be too much," says the bulletin.

In discussing the salary phase, Mr. Cotton says the minimum should be $600. He advocates closing the smaller schools and, in effect giving some teachers more pupils and more money for teaching them.

VICTORY WAS A SHUT OUT

Fairview and Bentonville Play Good Ball Game Sunday

In a hard fought game, Fairview won from the Bentonville team Sunday, by a score of 3 to 0. The only runs of the game were made in the first inning, after which Bentonville made a strong effort to score. The latter team lays its defeat to the fact that it had not played or practiced for the past five weeks, and considers itself very fortunate in being able to hold the score to such low figures, even though it could not tally. The batteries were: Bentonville, Caldwell and Murley; Fairview, Wilcoxon and Engelbert.

RUSHVILLE, IND., OCT. 16, 1906.

The belief that an understanding exists between Bryan and Hearst seems to be well founded, from the fact that Bryan is one of the extremely few public men who say they are gratified by the choice of Hearst as the Democratic candidate for governor of New York.

Commenting on the nomination of Hearst by the New York democracy, Senator Henry Cabot Lodge said in a recent speech: "The condition into which the Democratic party has fallen is in itself a menace to the welfare of the country. I am not one of those who rejoice in it, for I think it is just as important that the party of opposition should not drive out all its conservative elements, abandon all its traditions and give itself over to radicalism and general indecency, as that the party in power should remain sound and safe and wise."

Every Republican should organize himself and his neighbor for the fray and see that no Republican vote escapes being cast on November 6th, says the Martinsville Republican. Every citizen's business will profit by the result of such an organization because Republican policies bring and retain good business conditions. Every laborer's wages are made more certain by the prevalence of Republican policies. Every farmer's rural mail service is made more certain because the last Democratic administration threw down this service as not worth the cost. It may not be worth the cost to the heads of the postal department in Washington, but the Republican party knows that it is worth the cost to the persons who receive their mails through this service. Keep these things as they now are.

Republican papers and campaign speakers dwell with great emphasis on the continued prosperity and bountiful crops this country has been enjoying during the continued Republican administration. The Democrats, of course, will claim that the Republicans are not responsible for the big crops of 1906, which are having such a quickening effect on general trade all over the country. This is true only in part, however. The farmer gets from 20 to 30 per cent more for his grain than he did in Democratic days, and is thus encouraged to plant more of it. Knowing that a good market at big prices awaits him, he is sowing and planting much more than he did a few years ago, and he is paying off his mortgages and improving his land. These changes are one result of Republican sway. As figured by the report just issued by the department of agriculture, the aggregate cereal yield of the country for 1906 is only about 53,000,000 of bushels below that of 1905, which broke all the records. But when the department, a few weeks hence, figures out the farm value of this year's grain crops it will be found that they exceed those of a year ago. Prices are higher for farm products in 1906 than they have been in many years, and the advance is due to the general prosperity which Republican control of the government has brought. As the country believes that Republican control is going to last for years to come, without any interruption, the prosperity wave is rising.

CHANEY'S ELECTION SURE

His Friends Predict a Majority of About Two Thousand.

Indianapolis, Oct. 16.—John C. Chaney carried the Second district two years ago by 1,473 over Robert W. Miers of Bloomington, who in many respects was the strongest candidate the Democrats ever had in the Second. He was the choice of the old soldiers, who voted for him regardless of party affiliation. During his one term in congress Mr. Chaney has catered so successfully to the old soldiers that they are now organizing Chaney clubs which will undoubtedly prove a great element of strength to him. His friends think he will increase his majority next month and carry the district by 2,000. His followers are counting on carrying Knox county, which gave Miers a majority of nearly 300 two years ago. Knox county was formerly Democratic by from 500 to 700. The building of a number of large factories at Vincennes has brought in men who vote the Republican ticket, and has made the county doubtful. For the most part the Republicans are in good shape in the district. The Democrats are also said to be united for Davis. It is doubtful now how the district would stand on a square-out party vote. The Democrats are confident of electing Davis, but he will have a close share if he wins.

Chairman Hendren of the Democratic speakers' bureau has announced the following list of speakers who will accompany the Bryan train and speak at the following places: At Sullivan, S. M. Ralston; at Linton, Cyrus E. Davis; at Bedford, Walter W. Lotz and Robert W. Miers; at Mitchell, W. R. Myers; at Logansport, J. W. Ogdon and W. A. Cullop; at Washington, John W. Kern; at Vincennes, John E. Lamb; at Princeton, J. E. McCullough; at Ellettsburg, Eph Imman. Second day—At Tipton, Charles L. Jewett; at Peru, S. M. Ralston; at Huntington, John W. Kern; at Bluffton, J. E. McCullough; at Hartford City, Henry Henry Collierick; at Muncie, Robert W. Miers; at Anderson, Walter Lotz and James F. Cox; at Fortville, M. E. Foley; at Greencastle, Rev. Sam Small. Third day—At Lebanon, Frank E. Herring; at Lafayette, M. E. Foley and James F. Cox; at Delphi, John W. Kern; at Logansport, S. M. Ralston; at Plymouth, B. F. Shively; at Columbia City, Henry Collierick. An all-day rally will be held at Plymouth on the Thirtieth district Democrats the day that Bryan is there.

The Republicans are not counting on getting anything like "landslide" pluralities this time for their congressional candidates, but they do not estimate that the falling off will be more than 25 or 30 per cent. The Democratic congressional candidates are making a very creditable fight wherever they think they have a show. Menzies, Davis and Claude Bowers in the Fifth have been especially vigorous. Bowers is the youngest man to run for congress in Indiana for many years and is regarded as an effective campaigner. The Rev. Mr. Kuhns of Richmond is working hard at his job to beat congressman Watson, but he hasn't a ghost of a show. Frank Gavin is regarded as the best candidate the Democrats have had in this district for many years. Nothing is heard of the opposition to Congressman Charles Landis, congressman Crumacker and congressman Fred Landis, but J. A. M. Adair is giving a good account of himself in the Eighth and B. F. Shively is making a vigorous campaign in the Thirteenth. As the situation stands, however, the men who have money to bet will probably gamble on the Republicans carrying at least eleven districts.

The campaign has progressed far enough to indicate very plainly that Governor Hanly is the big drawing card on the Republican side. The governor, however, is speaking daily to large crowds that are very attentive if not demonstrative. The politicians who several months ago were criticizing the governor and declaring that his policy had put the Republican party out of the running, are now coming to the opinion that he is the strongest card in the play. Reports received at the headquarters here are all to the effect that the governor's appeal for the election of a legislature that will enable him to carry out the reforms he is advocating is doing more good than anything else that has been submitted to the voters. Behind the scenes some of the party leaders—and especially those who have close relationship with the big public service corporations, are wondering what the governor will do if he gets a legislature that will do his bidding. The anxious seat is crowded with men of this class, but a majority of the party workers seem willing to leave it to the governor.

"Spunk" Jones to Jeffersonville. Bloomington, Ind., October 16.—"Spunk" Jones, the negro who killed Albert Stevens here a week ago, and who escaped lynching by being spirited away to Indianapolis, was returned here yesterday for preliminary trial. A crowd thronged the streets, but no violence was attempted, the only disorder being cries of "Lynch him!" Jones entered a plea of not guilty to murder in the first degree on the grounds of self-defense. It was feared an attempt at lynching would be made if Jones was kept in the city over night, and he was taken to Jeffersonville for safe keeping. The trial was set for Thursday.

HOUSTON TRAGEDY

Missouri Murderer Taken Among Strangers to Prevent Lynching.

TALKS OF BLOODY DUEL

Killed the Parsons Baby Because It Cried and Others Because They Might Tell.

Gives Details of Awful Tragedy—Tries to Kill Himself In Jail.

Springfield, Mo., Oct. 16.—Jona Hamilton, the confessed slayer of the five members of the Parsons family near Houston, Texas county, has been taken to a jail in southern Missouri, the name of which is kept secret. Sheriff Evan Woods of Texas county says that Hamilton is a raving maniac and that he made two attempts to kill himself in the Houston jail by thrusting a knitting needle into his breast and neck and by butting his head against the cell wall. Sheriff Woods, who arrived here yesterday with Hamilton, says the talk of lynching was so strong in Houston that he thought it best to take Hamilton away. From Springfield Hamilton was sent to a place of safety near the Arkansas line, according to the sheriff. Sheriff Woods says that Hamilton made a full confession to him, declaring he met Parsons and family in the road on Friday; that Parsons threatened him with a knife and Hamilton killed Parsons with a shotgun in self-defense. He shot Parsons twice and then clubbed him with the gun, according to the story he told the sheriff. Then he clubbed Mrs. Parsons on the head. He then took out a bone-handled pocketknife, he says, and cut the throats of the two oldest children. At this point Mrs. Parsons showed signs of reviving and he clubbed her again. He had a desire, Hamilton said, to let the baby live, but it began to cry at this point and he killed it with one blow with the butt of his shotgun. "I killed them all," said Hamilton, "but it was in self-defense. That is, I killed Parsons to keep from getting killed, and then I had to kill the family in order to prevent them acting as witnesses against me. Dead men tell no tales, they say, and it is the same with women and children. I piled the five bodies into the wagon and drove to a clump of brush, where I hid the wagon. I unhitched the mules and rode one home, leading the other. That night I went to church. After church I drove the wagon to the creek, throwing the bodies in."

A CLOSE CALL

Six Persons Almost Carried Over Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 16.—A naphtha launch containing a party of six men and women was swept into the rapids and within half a mile of the brink of the falls late last night. They were saved from a plunge over the cataract by Albert Greenwood of Chippewa, Ont., who brought them ashore in his launch. The party consisted of Captain Charles B. Lentz and Mrs. Lentz, Mrs. Charles Clapham and daughter, and Dr. C. W. Clelland and Engineer James Herschel. Capt. Lentz lost his bearings in the dark and struck a bar, smashing the launch's rudder and leaving the little boat helpless. The first anchor chain snapped and the boat started down the river in a seventeen-mile current. The second anchor dragged along the bottom of the river for some time. The occupants of the boat frantically called for help. Nothing could be done for them. The second anchor finally caught on a ledge near the Canadian shore and within sound of the falls, Captain Lentz attracted attention from shore by using the launch's flashlight. Word was sent to Albert Greenwood, owner of a small steam launch, who volunteered to attempt a rescue. He made two trips through the dangerous channels and brought the party safely to shore.

The murderer was captured and hastily taken to Joliet to prevent a crowd of Lockport citizens, with whom Cheney was very popular, from lynching him.

BIG DEMONSTRATION

The Cuban Liberal Party Holds Great Meeting at Havana.

Havana, Oct. 16.—The Liberals held the greatest political meeting ever witnessed in Cuba at the Payret theater last night. Six thousand persons crowded into the building and an overflow meeting outside was attended by 2,000 more. Ex-Mayor O'Farrell presided. He was assisted by Jose Miguel Gomez, Alfredo Zayas and Senor Castellane. The tenor of the speeches was that what the American government had done in Cuba had no parallel in the world. Cuba should in every way follow the example of the United States and thus reach a position of independence and prosperity, so that in the course of time, except for the difference in language and government, Cuba and the United States would be one.

The killing of Congressman Villendas last year was frequently referred to by the speakers as a primary cause of the revolution. Senor Zayas denounced ex-President Palma for misinterpreting the Platt amendment in thinking the United States was bound to uphold the constitutional government. Senor Zayas said he did not blame the Moderates, but only their leader, Palma, and that if Palma was again chosen to the presidency in a fair election the Liberals would sustain him.

Cardinal Ferret's Hope.

Rome, Oct. 16.—Cardinal Ferret, prefect of the congregation of bishops and regulars, in an interview yesterday is quoted as saying that he believes that the religious and civil powers in Italy are interested in working together, as they have the same object in view, namely, the amelioration of the condition of the people and opposition to the "threatened anarchical aberration." The cardinal added: "The solution of the Roman question is not easy, but it is not impossible. This opinion is not shared by all the officials at the vatican, but I think that a dignified modus vivendi satisfactory to both sides, must be discussed and eventually arranged." The cardinal referred at length to France, in which country he was at one time papal nuncio, and described the strong support which the vatican alone gave to the republic when it was isolated, quoting a Russian diplomatist as saying: "The pope made France presentable."

Insurance Campaign Arranged.

New York, Oct. 16.—A meeting of interests opposed to the administration tickets of the Mutual Life and New York Life Insurance companies was held here yesterday, former Judge Alton B. Parker presiding. The meeting was made up of a special committee of the International Policyholders' association and the Mutual Life Policyholders' association. Its purpose was to discuss a plan of campaign and make known to each other the thirty-six men nominated for trustees of the Mutual Life company and the twenty-four nominees for the directorate of the New York Life. A plan of campaign was outlined with the idea that each of the nominees and members of the committees will be able to go back to their respective cities and conduct a uniform campaign all over the country against the administration tickets of both companies.

New York, Oct. 16.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the president of the Confederate states, is dying of pneumonia at the Hotel Majestic here. It is believed she cannot survive more than a few hours. Mrs. Davis has been ill several days, but it had been believed that she would recover up to last night, when a sudden change for the worse was noticed.

REAL HAVANA FOR FIVE CENTS.

Thos. W. Lytle at Last Finds a
Nickel Cigar Worth Smoking.

When Thos. W. Lytle, who probably has the largest sale for high grade cigars of any dealer in Rushville, heard that a long Havana filler cigar was being retailed for 5c., he was naturally incredulous. As he wanted to give his customers the best cigars for the least money he got a sample box of the Wadsworth Bros', Chicots.

The samples were all right and he ordered a trial of 1,000 to see how they would please his trade. The result was wonderful, as men who had been buying 10 and 5 cent cigars said they preferred the Chicots. It is a good and satisfactory smoke with a clear Havana aroma.

Try a Chicito to-day and you will enjoy it, if you like a good cigar.
